

THE NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF OPEN SCHOOLING (NIOS) is an autonomous National College of Distance Education in Odisha, India. The governing body is the NIOS Board.

It is headed by the Board of Governing of the Indian Council of Distance Education in New Delhi. NIOS has an office in various states and a Regional Office at the Odisha State Institute of Open Schooling, Bhubaneswar. The Board is headed by the State Institute for Distance Education and has members from various sectors and age categories. It has a permanent committee of 40% women and 20% SCs.

Students enrolled through the Board of Distance and Open Schools from Class 10 to Class 12. Students through their own work with the Distance Education Certificate. The Board is headed by the State Institute for Distance Education and has members from various sectors and age categories. It has a permanent committee of 40% women and 20% SCs.

The governing body is headed by a State Institute for Distance Education and has members from various sectors and age categories. It has a permanent committee of 40% women and 20% SCs.

The Board aims to provide a social learning environment for the students. It has a permanent committee of 40% women and 20% SCs. It has a permanent committee of 40% women and 20% SCs.

The purpose of NIOS is to provide a social learning environment for the students. It has a permanent committee of 40% women and 20% SCs. It has a permanent committee of 40% women and 20% SCs.

The purpose of NIOS is to provide a social learning environment for the students. It has a permanent committee of 40% women and 20% SCs. It has a permanent committee of 40% women and 20% SCs.